KEITH'S KORNER

Who doesn't enjoy a good story that is well told? Pastors are always looking for good stories that help illustrate a point and communicate a message.

The people that make up Boiling Springs Baptist Church (BSBC) each have their own unique story. These stories include anything and everything that have been included in our life experience. Relationships, education, jobs, environment and the choices we make are just a few of the ingredients that help make up our story.

When we combine these individual stories together we have the collective story that is Boiling Springs Baptist. It is through our individual story and our collective story that God desires to work and move. God respects and loves the individual while desiring the good of the whole.

Will you join with others here at BSBC and tell your story, one that will also tell our collective story? You can do this in a most simple way. By having your families' picture in our new church directory you will help BSBC tell our collective story. On page two of this newsletter you can read about dates, times and details regarding portrait sessions here at BSBC. Your directory committee has been hard at work and with your participation we will have both a printed and digital copy available before Thanksgiving. Picture pricing is very reasonable and can be obtained at any time through the church office.

September is shaping up to be an exciting month! On Sunday, September 11, we welcome back former BSBC Pastor Buddy Corbin to preach in our Founder's Day service. Also, two new Sunday classes will begin on the morning of September 11; Barbara Greene will begin a class for college age and twenty somethings in the LEC and I will begin a four-week new member class upstairs in the educational wing (Room 207). Wed. night meals and children's music and missions will begin on Sept. 7, at the picnic shelter.

Will you join me and others in welcoming all our anticipated guests during September? May the current that is God's love and presence flow through our church family as we move into a new fall season of service and ministry.

You are Loved,
Keith

NORTH CAROLINA MISSIONS OFFERING (NCMO)

Special offering received during September

One group this offering supports is NC Baptist Men, which involves thousands of men, women, and student volunteers in 17 ministries. Right now the disaster relief ministry is working in flooded areas in Louisiana. You can have a part in supporting this work by giving to the NCMO.

Special offering envelopes are in the pew racks.

The Ingathering will be on September 25 and our goal is $2,600.

We appreciate your prayers and financial support.

The Missions Committee

Immediate help for the people in Louisiana may be taken to the Shelby Mission Camp. Cash donations are the best form for disaster relief efforts, however, if you would like to donate other items, you may use following ideas:

Canned food, hygiene items for men, women and children, baby products (diapers, formula), cleaning supplies (soap cleaners, disinfectant, broom, mop, sponge, bucket), furniture (in good shape, something you would be proud of), appliances (in working order), building materials (sheetrock, lumber, etc.), NOT accepting CLOTHING

Please call Mission Camp to make sure they are there before delivering items. Any other questions please contact David Brown at the camp: 919-422-9990.

The Missions Committee is pleased to announce we have reached our goal for the India School project. Boiling Springs Baptist Church will send $10,089.12 with former pastor, Carroll Page, when he returns to India in the fall to complete the school in Tajpur. We appreciate all who gave and supported this important ministry.

PRESCHOOL AND CHILDREN NOTES...

“Here is my life, Jesus. I will go where
You want me to go. I will do what You want me to do.
You can have whatever You want, Lord.
Just help yourself---to me.”

Amazing! Our children were amazing as they showed us how strong their faith is becoming and how they are learning to walk with God. We, their church family and their own families, should be proud of what they did on Children's Sunday. I, personally thank you for sharing them with me and allowing me to see them shine so brightly.

School has started and the get-back in the routine struggles have begun. It hardly seems possible but the summer is gone. Our children's activities will begin again on September 7, from 5pm-7pm, beginning at the picnic shelter with a hot dog supper. The children will go to choir and mission activities following supper. We are looking forward to an exciting and busy Wednesday night.

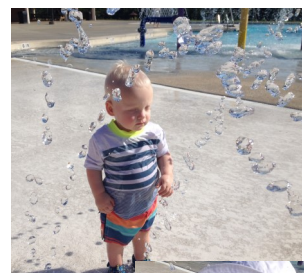

There are many exciting activities planned for the weeks and months ahead. Included among them are the following: Feed the Flock hosted by the children, Preschool-Kindergarten Family Muffin Time, Family Mission Night and Trail of Treats. More information about each of the activities will be coming soon.

My hope is that each of you will help make this 2016-2017 church year the best ever for our children.

GREETINGS FROM THE DAYCARE

Hello friends! It's hard to believe that we are already in a brand new school year! This year we graduated thirteen children who are now kindergarteners. Time sure does fly.

Currently we have 64 children enrolled and approximately 21 staff members.

Things are going well here at the daycare. We have a lot of exciting activities planned for September. Our scholastic book fair is planned for September 12-16. We will kick off our book fair with a family night open house for all of our daycare families.

Wednesday September 28th we will be having the children's pictures made with Shelby camera and video.

I'm so proud of the wonderful staff that God has blessed us with. They truly go the extra mile for our kids and their families.

Every day is a good day to teach children about Jesus!

I have no greater joy than to hear that my children are walking in the truth. 3 John 1:4

Many blessings, Dawn

A MESSAGE FROM OUR YOUTH MINISTER

I would like to start off by saying thank you, on behalf of Mary and I, for the support from the church through leadership, prayers, money, and thoughtful words of encouragement allowing us to have such a successful summer. Mary and I could never be successful in ministry alone and we are beyond grateful for the wonderful adult leadership at Boiling Springs Baptist Church for our youth. We have thoroughly enjoyed this summer and the busyness and excitement it has brought.

As we open up a new chapter of life in the fall with a new school year, there is much anxiety but also excitement. A new school year means so many new things are ahead for students, teachers, and parents. Just as in any transition or new chapter of life, as Jesus promises His Disciples in the book of Matthew, He will be with us wherever we go. So if this new season brings about a new home, a new school, or a new workplace, take comfort in the fact that you are never alone. We are all protected and loved by the Spirit of Christ and my hope for all students, teachers, parents, and church members is that we all keep that truth close to heart.

After several discussions with the youth committee and staff, we are beyond excited for a few things happening in the fall. Perhaps the newest thing for our youth is the addition of Sunday evening Bible studies. All youth are invited to attend a Bible study on the book of Matthew starting on September 11. These Bible studies will take place at houses of some volunteers within the church. We currently have seven couples who have opened up their houses and we will be using a rotation of houses to host these Bible studies. These Bible studies will take place from 6-8 PM on Sunday evenings and our youth group would greatly appreciate your prayers as we study the word of God more intentionally and seriously. Our goal is for this to take place well into the future on Sunday evenings.

With that change, brings another exciting change to our Wednesday night schedule. Youth will still meet from 5:30 -7 PM but the nights will be much more focused on a time of live worship. We are thrilled to start these new adventures led by the Holy Spirit. We pray, and ask for prayer, that God will continue to move in the lives of our youth and our leaders. We appreciate your support more than I can express in words. May God continue to bless Boiling Springs Baptist Church.

With love,
Alan and Mary Newcomb

GWU CONNECT FAIR was a great experience on Tuesday, Aug. 23.

Pastor Keith, Alan, Ellen, Barbara Greene and Diane Rabon were all present and talked with many incoming students, giving out information and small tokens with our church information. Almost 150 emails were gathered and we have had some visits this week from some of the students interested in seeing what we - as a church fellowship - are all about.

Baskets of goodies were given away to some lucky students! They loved them!
