Keith's Korner

Gracias por sus recientes oraciones ya que tres de Boiling Springs Baptist viajaron a Xela, Guatemala en Octubre.

Translation... Thank you for your recent prayers as three from Boiling Springs Baptist travelled to Xela, Guatemala in October.

Melvin and Joann Lutz and I are grateful for your prayers and concern as we were away learning more about the work of the Good Shepherd Orphanage, Medical Clinic and Training Center. We are excited to announce that on Wednesday night November 29, we will be sharing about our experience at 6PM in the Lighthouse room. The church family, including children and youth are invited to come together for this special time. Flyers regarding this work in Guatemala can be picked up on the table outside the church office.

Announcing new and additional time for weekly prayer and Bible Study – On Sunday, November 5, Daylight Savings Time ends, and our evenings begin getting dark very early. Beginning on Wednesday, November 8, I will be leading an 11:00AM Prayer meeting and Bible Study for all those who may not want to come out at night. We will meet in the Kerygma Sunday School room and for those who would like to share lunch together, this could be a possibility as well. The Bible study on Wednesday morning will be the same Bible study that I will lead on Wednesday evening. Please help me in sharing this news to church members and to anyone in the community who may be interested. If transportation is needed, please let the church office know ASAP.

A short note regarding church budget – This summer and fall we have been an active church family, both with church activities and personal activities. Our current budget is running behind, and I encourage you to be mindful of the work and ministry of Boiling Springs Baptist. As we move into the final two months for 2017 please be mindful of your regular tithes and be mindful of offerings that may have been missed during vacations or other time away. Your tithe allows the church to fulfill its work and the ministry to which it feels called. Also, please be mindful that on Wednesday night, November 1, at 6PM in the Lighthouse room, we will have discussion regarding the proposed budget for 2018.

November is shaping up to be an exciting month! We will enjoy a good night for couples on Saturday, November 4. Then November 5 will be a special morning as we ordain Connie Greene as a deacon during the worship service. That night we will have a fun time for young adults and young adult families at the barn of Gene and Sherri Cox. Our annual Gardner-Webb University Thanksgiving fellowship and meal will take place on Sunday night, November 19, at 6PM in the LEC. The church will provide the entrée and drinks and we ask that you bring some good homecooked vegetables and desserts to share. Come enjoy the music of the GWU Concert Choir. This is always a special time and you will not want to miss this opportunity to show love and care to the GW students.

A special thanks to Bonnie Doughtie for her work this month with the Operation Christmas Child collection site here at Boiling Springs Baptist. Help is needed with this ministry and Bonnie would welcome any time and assistance you can provide. Please call the church office (434-6244) or see the sign-up sheet outside the office door if you have availability.

Love and blessings,
Keith

GRADES 1-3 RA's MISSION PROJECT

Younger RA's are organizing "Birthday Boxes" for children with upcoming birthdays, whose families come to our Food Closet. Donations of the following items would be appreciated: items such as: boxed cake mixes, canned icing, candles, birthday plates, cups, napkins, and blank child appropriate birthday cards.

As I write this article, it occurs to me that by the time you read it, I will have been on staff at Boiling Springs for one year. My, what a year it has been! Transition is not an easy thing and is often hard to negotiate for all parties involved. You have been so helpful to Dick and me as we have made this transition to a different neighborhood, different community, different church, different style of worship, different choir, different choir music library, different group of adults anxious to be involved with the Adult ministry, and an entire congregation of new faces and personalities. I could go on and on about the things that are different for us but I won't bore you with all the details. (I sense you smiling out there.) We are continuing to learn the ways of the community and the congregation and you have been very patient and offered grace to us as we have faltered with recalling your name or the story you told us about your family or when I choose a hymn or song that is unfamiliar to you.

This has not only been a transition for us—but it is a transition for you (as I am sure you are aware). Thank you for giving us time to adjust, to adapt, to try to learn who you are and how we fit within that context. As I ponder that, it comes to mind that the entire congregation and staff have been and continue to be in a time of transition. With a relatively new ministry staff after several years of having had the same people in the same ministry positions, there will naturally be some hiccups along the way and possibly times of disagreement and/or different expectations by both staff and congregants. I am confident that when these occur, we can work through these times and will become stronger Christians as a result. It's kind of like a marriage—we love each other through the good times and the difficult times. It's just what we do because it is what Jesus would do and it is what Jesus teaches us to do. I continue to keep you in my prayers and I covet your prayers as we enter another year of ministry together.

In God's love and service with you,

Candy

Preschool and Children...

I will thank you by living as I should. Psalm 119:7.

"God tells us in the Bible how he wants us to live. When we obey God, and do what is right, it's like saying thank you to him. And you don't even have to use words."

Devotions for Preschoolers

As we enter the month of November, we need to remember that not only this month, but every month, we need to be thankful for what God has provided for us. Thanksgiving is a time that we center on being thankful. We are a blessed community and we need to be always mindful of the many blessings that we receive each and every day. We need to take time and look around at our community and see and do what is right and live as God has asked us to live.

The children and their families, and all church members, are invited to participate on Wednesday, November 8, from 6:15 to 7:00 in our Family Shoebox Shuffle. Bring your family shoebox items and share the time with others as we pack our boxes. On November 19, during the morning worship we will bring our boxes forward for a special time of blessing. Everyone is invited to join us in this prayer time.

The children are invited to join Miss Ellen on November 26, for the Boiling Springs Christmas parade. The GAs have made special dresses to wear and have bagged candy to give out as we walk. Anyone is invited to join us.

Two of the ministries of our church are the food closet and the backpack ministry. The food closet is constantly in need of food items or donations. The backpack ministry, which provides food for our elementary students, may not be as well-known as the food closet but does provide a very important resource for needy children. Please continue to support these two worthy ministries.

Give thanks to the Lord for he is good. His faithful love continues forever.

Psalm 118:1

Miss Ellen

A Message from Our Youth Minister...

It is the season of giving thanks and there is so much to be thankful for. There is truly a different feel in the air once November hits and we gear up for the holidays. Unfortunately, there are many people in our own community who don't have the things to be thankful for that many of us do. I encourage myself, as well as our church, to have a spirit of giving this holiday season. Jesus says in Matthew 25:40, "Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me." May each of us, who have much to be thankful for, not only give thanks for what we have been given; but may each of us have a heart to give to others so that they may be nurtured and loved as sisters and brothers in the name of Jesus.

November is a busy month and here are some important dates to be aware of:

Saturday, November 4 we are having our Falling in Love Again Date Night. This is a date night for all married and engaged couples. We hope to grow in our inter-generational relationships within our church and we look forward to this great night. Thank you to all who have registered to be a part of this date night and we look forward to seeing you at 5:30 PM in the Fellowship Hall and LEC! Youth are encouraged to come and help with child care and serving drinks!

Friday November 10-Sunday November 12 our youth will be going to Camp Caraway in Asheboro, NC for a Fall Retreat. We have guest musicians who will be joining us for the weekend and we will enjoy worship, quiet times and team building activities. We are taking 15 youth with us on this retreat and we look forward to a weekend to re-charge our walk with Jesus.

We encourage our youth and our whole church in collecting and packing Operation Christmas Child boxes during the month of November. This is a huge project for our church and in the spirit of giving, as mentioned above, I hope we can all be involved in some way this month.

I hope everyone remains safe as you and your family travel to and from, as well as participate in, holiday festivities. Have a great start to the holidays!

With love,
Mary and Alan Newcomb

Church News...

Dear Church Family,
Words cannot express how much we appreciate every kindness that was shown to our family during my mother's illness and then at her passing. We have coveted your prayers, cherished your visits, been encouraged by your cards, delighted by your food, honored by your memorials, and warmed by your love. We feel Blessed to be a part of your family.

Dear Boiling Springs Baptist Family,
Thank you all so much for the cards, calls, texts, food, and visits during Mama's illness and passing. She loved her church family and you all have been so supportive during this difficult time. Please continue to pray for us in the days ahead as we learn to do life without our Mama.
Much love,

I want to thank every one for cards, thoughts, and prayers during the illness and death of my sister,
Mary Bratton.

Thank you for the cards, calls, visits, food, and prayers during Robert's illness and death. So many of you shared fond memories and stories that we will forever treasure. The thoughtfulness of our church will never be forgotten. We are truly blessed to be part of such an amazing church and community.
Love and thanks to all of you,

Dear Church Family,
I am getting my strength back and hope to be back with you in a couple weeks. Thank you for all your cards, calls and food, but especially your prayers. We are so blessed to have such a caring church family.

*"The last of October/We lock the garden gate/The flowers alive all withered/That used to stand straight." As we all "lock the garden gate" and begin raking our yards and putting summer in the shed, we naturally draw inward; into warmer clothes, into the house and indoor activities, and hopefully, into reading more books. As cooler weather beckons us to cozy-up in a comfortable place with a good book, this season is a good time to become more familiar with our church library's many devotional books. Once a father's parting words to his son was for him to sit quietly, every day, in the best room of the house for thirty minutes. Perhaps this is good advice for the Christian. Fill that time with a selection from a devotional book and a reading from the Bible. How comforting to have a place in our home where the Bible and a devotional book lay side by side waiting to offer blessings. A favorite devotional book from our library is F. Legard Smith's Meeting God in Quiet Places. Daily roaming the sheep littered hills and dales of Cotswold England, encountering fox and hound, pasture gates, cemeteries, church steeples and so much more, he is able to relate these vistas to our souls' longings to be more filled with the things of God. So, as we rake and sweep away leaves and brush, let us clean out the cobwebs, in mind and spirit, as we read devotionals and meditate on God's word.

The Parade of Flags will be held on Sun., Nov. 26, one week before the beginning of the Advent Season. The flags, lovingly sewn by the women of our church, represent some of the countries in which we have missionaries serving and proclaiming the love of Christ. Our missionaries depend on those of us at home for prayer and financial support. During the busy Christmas Season, you may give your offering anytime during December. Offering envelopes for the SBC Lottie Moon Offering are in the packets you receive in the mail. Offering envelopes for the CBF Global Missions Offering are in the pew racks. As we prepare our hearts to celebrate the coming of the Christ Child, let's give generously to support those in foreign lands who have answered God's call to "Go and make disciples."
